

Education Week 2012 Semaine de l'éducation

Introducing 3 Ways for Teachers & Students to WIN

March 4-10 Mars

Teachers

All teachers K-12 are invited to submit three activities/ideas they participated in during Education Week, as well as one idea for a future Education Week theme or activity.

Entries will be chosen at random and five prizes of $100 merchandise gift cards will be awarded (one per district).

Enter online at www.nlta.nl.ca by clicking on the Education Week link.

Contest Deadline: March 12, 2012

techKNOWLEDGEy
technoSAVOIR

Students

Students are invited to create an artistic drawing of what this year's Education Week theme means to them.

Entries will be chosen at random and four $50 merchandise gift cards will be awarded (one per each of the grade levels: K-3; 4-6; 7-9; 10-12).

Schools must select one winner per grade level (per school) to be entered into the provincial prize draw.

Entries should be submitted by March 12, 2012 to:

Education Week 2012 Student Poster Contest
Newfoundland and Labrador
Teachers' Association
3 Kenmount Road, St. John's, NL
A1B 1W1

For Students

The NLTA and the VOCM / CFCB network will be looking for entries on what this year's Education Week theme means for students. Students are asked to write something about the issues (positive and negative) around technology and its impact on education, communication and learning.

Entries will be chosen at random and twenty $50 Merchandise Gift Cards will be awarded (5 per each of the grade levels, K-3, 4-6, 7-9, 10-12).

Students have to log on to vocm.com and look for the Education Week contest icon.

Go to www.nlta.nl.ca 'click' the Education Week link for contest details and entry forms

Submissions will be reviewed to determine if guidelines have been followed and then entered into a random draw.

Submission Deadline is March 12, 2012. Prizes will be awarded the week of March 12 and winners will be announced in The Bulletin.