Enid (Coveyduck) Jerrett
1916-2016
Homemaker-Educator

Enid was born on October 3, 1916 in Juniper Stump, Makinsons to Joseph and Fanny (Mugford) Coveyduck, and was the second youngest of ten children. She attended the one room Emerald Vale School there and took Grade 11 from a teacher who had Grade 9 only. Upon completing high school, she attended Memorial University College and obtained her Teaching Certificate in 1935. After a period of teaching she met and married Eric Jerrett of Clarke's Beach. Together they raised 3 boys and 3 girls. Ever a teacher, she taught each to read and print before starting kindergarten, and tutored through all school years. With the nest emptying, she became the first teacher at the Vera Perlin School in Bay Roberts. Later she taught kindergarten in Coley's Point Elementary until her retirement.

Her interest in life beyond her family and teaching was her church. She was a longtime member of the Board of Management, Session, United Church Women, taught Sunday School, and was a faithful member of the congregation until her move to St. John's.

Predeceased by her husband Eric (1989), daughters Carol (1955) and Maisie Lorraine (2015), brothers Jack, Chris, and Harvey; sisters Jessie, Hilda, Winnie, Sybil, Effie and Laura; son-in-law Don (2012), she leaves family members Eric/Bud (Betty), Jean (Jerry) Rex, Fred (Linda), Bob (Elaine), and Sue (Phil) Quinlan; sisters-in-law Norma Blackwood and Nellie Hanson; 24 grandchildren, (22) great-grandchildren, nephews, nieces, and friends.
