Sister Myra Rumsey

Most of her life Sister Myra Rumsey was known for educating students for the business world. She was an excellent teacher and held in high esteem which was quite evident by the numbers of former students who attended her wake and sang
 her praises.
 Sister Myra was a very happy person and she loved life. She always had a smile
 on her face which was infectious for those of us around her.
 While Sister Myra Rumsay may have retired from teaching school in 1980 she kept very busy with her mission for working for the poor. She would collect items and organize a sale just before every Christmas. And with the money she made she would go out and purchase turkeys for the Christmas hampers.
 Whenever we hear Sister Myras name mentioned, it brings a smile to our faces and we think of a kind and generous Sister who we have been privileged to have
 in our presence.
